

ALA Presents “An Afternoon with the Author” 2024

Sponsor Benefit Packages

ALA is proud to announce local author and public relations consultant Rannah Gray as the featured speaker of our 18th annual Author Event, “An Afternoon with the Author”.

Rannah Gray is an international award-winning author whose first book, Familiar Evil, a true crime story, won 14 awards, including 7 Gold Medals for Best True Crime. She has also written two award-winning mysteries for young readers with her twin great-nieces and their third book in The Louisiana Mystery Series will be released this year.

The event will take place at 3 p.m. Sunday, July 14, 2024 at the Main Library at Goodwood, 7711 Goodwood Boulevard in the 1st floor Conference Room, and will be followed by a book signing and reception.

All proceeds go towards providing services to the students of Adult Literacy Advocates of Greater Baton Rouge. ALA is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization that provides adult education services including HiSET (formerly GED) preparation, Adult Literacy, Adult Basic and Intermediate Education, and English as a Second Language courses.

Each year, we seek corporate sponsorships for the event from area businesses. These sponsorships help us raise funds to serve more students, add more classes and improve our outreach efforts.

Event sponsors are entitled to benefits as part of their sponsorship package. The following is a list of benefits that go with the corresponding donor level:
